Hull Says Finland Now Only Puppet Of Germany

Bridgehead In Caen Sector Is Being Extended

British Armies Make Progress Despite Stubborn German Resistance

NAZI BRINGING UP FRESH TROOPS
By KINGSBURY SMITH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 30.—British armies southwest of Caen, in Normandy, extended their bridgehead across the Odon river on both flanks today despite stubborn German opposition.

The Nazis threw in fresh troops and reinforcements into the fray in the north of Evreux. Elsewhere on the battlefield around Caen, road and rail hub which is threatened with encirclement, the situation remained unchanged, headquarters said.

A battlefield dispatch reported that British infantrymen and anti-tank gunners smashed a German counter-stroke along the western flank of the Caen salient, standing firm in a raging thunderstorm while the rain came down "in sheets."

PA NEWC Observes
Pa Newc figured the political game was really getting warmed up when he passed a group of young ladies around a heavy counter avidly discussing the merits and demerits of the G. O. P. convention, and ignoring the earnings altogether.

Some people are just much smarter than others. More than one person has been seen downtown with an umbrella to keep a little bit of shade right with them.

Dogs still interest people when other things don't. Not even the attractive counters of a department store were making left turns into Jefferson street from Washington street while headed west. It was also discovered that the sign forbidding left turns was missing from the traffic sign.

While in the vicinity of the Public Square on Thursday afternoon, Pa Newc discovered that a lot of automobiles were making left turns into Jefferson street from Washington street while headed west. It was also discovered that the sign forbidding left turns was missing from the traffic sign.

New Castle and Lawrence county got some relief last night from the torrid weather conditions of the past few days, but none of the rain that fell in some nearby districts. Temperature was down near normal this morning.

Save this newspaper and every other newspaper for the newspaper salvage collection drive here on July 15. Only newspapers will be gathered, and they will be for use at the Shenango Pottery in this city, while the funds realized will go to the benefit of the Deshon hospital annex in this city.

Indications are that few farmers will be taking any time off for the July 4 holiday. Looks to Pa Newc as though the day will be about the height of the wheat harvesting season.

Although New Castle failed to get any rain late Thursday afternoon the citizens could hear the thunder from a storm which passed around south of the city.

Report Laval As Peace Emissary

LONDON, June 30.—(INS)—An entirely unconfirmed press report from Switzerland said today that the Germans were seeking to prevail upon Arch-Collaborationist Pierre Laval, chief of the Vichy government of France, to make peace overtures through the United States.

The report was contained in a Bern dispatch to the London Daily Telegraph.

German Hordes Are Retreating Toward Minsk
Moscow Report Says Nazi Troops Are Fleeing "In Confusion" Before Reds

NAZI LOSSES IN WEEK 110,000
By NATALIA RENE

MOSCOW, June 30.—Sabre-wielding Cossack cavalrymen and hard-driving Russian tank crews slashed today at the heels of German hordes retreating "in confusion" toward the White Russian capital of Minsk, after the Red army liquidated more than 111,000 enemy troops in its week-long offensive.

One spearhead of the Soviet army was within little more than 30 miles of Minsk, gateway to Poland and the Reich itself, while other converging Russian columns threatened hundreds of thousands of German troops with encirclement.

Washington Roundup
(International News Service)
From Washington today comes a stern and solemn warning that the war is far from won. The warning is made by Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, Admiral Ernest J. King, chief of naval operations, and Henry H. Arnold, chief of the Army Air Forces.

In a report to President Roosevelt after first hand inspection of the Allied beachhead in Normandy, the commanders strike out at home-front complacency and against civilian war workers leaving their jobs for peacetime work. "There is still a tough fight ahead of us," they declared.

Meanwhile, the barometer of Argentine-American relations is dropping sharply to indicate a new gathering storm. Cause of the new strain is a sword-rattling, jingoistic speech by Col. Juan Peron, Argentine minister of war and power behind his government. The state department made public text of the speech in which Peron dedicates Argentina to an unofficial pursuit of a warlike life and a war economy his remarks are in startling similarity to the earlier proclamations of Mussolini.

A survey of official army and navy announcements discloses that more than 12,000 Japanese planes and nearly 1,400 enemy ships of all types have been destroyed since Pearl Harbor.

On the food front, OPA announces asparagus, peas and tomatoes will go back on the ration list Sunday and says there will be 15 to 20 per cent less canned vegetables for civilians in the coming year. Asparagus will cost 10 blue points, peas and tomatoes, five. Five new blue stamps, W-8, X-8, Y-8, Z-8 and A-8 become good Sunday.

OPA also orders lower prices on sweet peppers, hothouse cucumbers and all melons except watermelons in new ceilings effective July 5.

CAEN DRIVE AIMS AT PARIS

Continuing the drive to outflank Caen in a lunge toward Paris, British and Canadian forces have been cutting highway and rail links about that bitterly contested point while airmen pound at key rail and supply centers along the Seine river in the sections indicated on map by the large arrow. Small map, inset at right, indicates in black the area gained since the original invasion landings on June 6.

Long Gas Rate Case Is Ended
Postwar Plans Being Formed

Refund And Lower Rates Are Agreed On By M. L. & H. Company
(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 30.—A seven-year-old rate case against the Manufacturing Light and Heat Company, of Pittsburgh, was terminated today by the Public Utility Commission following an offer by the utility to refund $225,000 to its Pennsylvania customers and to reduce rates approximately $200,000 annually.

The new tariff will become effective August 15, the commission said, and refunds completed by September 1.

The utility operates in Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Bedford, Clarion, Fayette, Greene, Lawrence, Mercer, Somerset, Venango and Washington counties and furnishes service in parts of Ohio and West Virginia.

Commissioner Thomas C. Buchanan filed a dissenting opinion. The commission's order, which (Continued on Page Two)

Canal Hearing At Youngstown Opens July 13
PITTSBURGH, June 30.—(INS)—An Interstate Commerce Commission hearing will open on July 13 at Youngstown, O., upon which may hinge the future of the projected Beaver-Mahoning dead end canal between Youngstown and Rochester, Pa., on the Ohio river.

The commission will take testimony on a plea of Youngstown industrial interests for a reduction in rail coal rates from western Pennsylvania fields to the Ohio steel areas.

Opponents of the canal proposal have long contended that a rail coal rate reduction by the ICC after the canal was built would leave it an idle, useless ditch with no economic justification.

Guam And Rota Islands Bombed
NEW YORK, June 30.—(INS)—Squadrons totalling 170 Allied planes raided the Jap-held islands of Guam and Rota in the southern Marianas again yesterday, the Japanese Domei agency reported today.

The wireless dispatch was recorded by U. S. government monitors.

Plan Paper Drive For Dual Benefit In New Castle

Newspaper Salvage Collection To Aid Shenango Pottery And Deshon Annex

COLLECTION IS SET FOR JULY 15
With a double barreled objective in view, both local plans were made Thursday night in The Castleton for a newspaper salvage drive in New Castle on Saturday, July 15.

The newspapers will be used in the Shenango Pottery and the net proceeds from the sale will go into a fund to be used in service to the Deshon General Hospital Annex located in Cunningham Park.

This will not be the usual waste paper drive. No magazines or card board boxes are wanted; this will be only for newspapers tied in bundles. They will be picked by volunteer workers, loaded onto trucks and hauled to the Shenango Pottery. The Pottery will pay ceiling price for the papers.

Scouts In Camp
Ordinarily the waste paper drives are conducted under the sponsorship of the Boy and Girl Scouts. The Scouts are in camp during July and are not available for paper salvage duty. The urgent need for newspapers at the pottery became known and a July campaign was decided upon. At the same time it seemed to be an opportunity to raise funds to aid the wounded veterans in camp at the Annex and the above mentioned plan was worked out.

Numa P. Vidal is the general chairman of the movement, with John P. Boyle acting as collection chairman. J. Fred Clarke, president of the Lawrence County chapter of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association will act as fleet master and be in charge of securing and dispatching trucks.

Need the Paper
The need for newspapers at the pottery is vital. Between pieces of china were a price of the paper is placed and hundreds of thousands of dozens pieces of ware pass through the pottery. Magazine paper will not do as it is too smooth; only newspapers are used.

Householders are urged to get their old newspapers gathered up and save them for July 15. Bundle them, tie them securely and have them on the curb in front of the home by noon on the collection day.

This is an opportunity to aid a local industry and at the same time help the recreation fund at the Deshon annex in Cunningham Park. Details of the collection will be announced from time to time. Right now the important thing is to start putting aside your newspaper for July 15.

U. S. Forces In Italy Advance Toward Cecina
Tank and Infantry Forces Advance Rapidly Along Broad Front

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
ROME, June 30.—American tank and infantry forces, advancing rapidly along a broad front, moved today to within a mile of Cecina, which is less than 20 miles from the key Italian port of Livorno (Leghorn).

Another U. S. spearhead, Lieut. Gen. Mark W. Clark's forces pushed ahead, further inland, to a point less than seven miles south of the historic city of Siena.

Gen. Sir Henry Maitland Wilson's headquarters announced that the American advanced elements were within 1,500 yards of the Cecina road junction.

Next Six Weeks To Give Indication Of Time Of Berlin Entry

(Editor's note: International News Service War Correspondent Pierre J. Available facts show that the German high command did not believe Cherbourg would be conquered or that the Russians would break through the Fatherland line.

Southern Half Of Saipan Now In U. S. Hands
American Troops Meet Stiff Resistance From Japs, Small Gain On Western End

AIR OPPOSITION IS SLACKENING UP
By RICHARD V. HALLER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
PEARL HARBOR, June 30.—American assault troops on Saipan island were meeting severe resistance today after gaining control of the entire southern half of the Marianas stronghold by wiping out a Jap pocket of resistance on Nafutan point.

The last remnants of resistance on Nafutan point at the southeastern tip of Saipan were cleaned out Tuesday according to a Pacific fleet headquarters announcement.

Occupation of Nafutan on the south and Kagman peninsula on the north gives United States forces complete control of Magicienne bay, an anchorage on the eastern shore of Saipan which may prove of value in maintaining supply lines.

Small Gains Made
On the western side of the island, headquarters announced that small gains were made in and around the City of Garapan but the advance northward is being made "against severe enemy resistance."

While the ground troops continued their hard-fought campaign which is now going into its third week, carrier planes carried out a devastating raid against Pagan island, 108 miles north of Saipan.

This raid was staged Tuesday and strong carrier-based aircraft units scored direct hits on enemy barracks and a large reservoir which is the island's only source of fresh water.

No air opposition was encountered at Pagan and only one Jap plane apparently unserviceable was seen on the island.

To the People of this Community
War photographs in this newspaper at their best cannot convey the horror or the tremendous sacrifices being made by men and women on the battle fronts from this community.

Rather, our news pictures should serve to remind you that the fighting fronts are far removed from our America and that we home are playing a tiny part compared to the burden being shouldered by our fighting men and women.

Picture yourself in place of any of the people shown in the photos. Think of yourself facing the cross fire of the enemy, sitting in a trench, or in a raft adrift on the ocean, speeding into death traps over Nazi Europe or lying on bloody soil awaiting aid. These pictures are not wired for sound. You cannot hear the screams of agony or the gun-fire but the realities of men fighting and dying are still present for you to see and think about.

Your government is not asking you to trade places with the heroes in these pictures but it is asking you to enroll your bankroll and buy more War Bonds than you ever bought before. Back the attack—Buy more than before.

U. S. Breaks Off All Relations With Finland

Further Relations With Finland Impossible As Germans Over-Run Country

SECRETARY HULL NOTIFIES FINLAND
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 30.—The United States formally severed diplomatic relations with Finland today as Secretary of State Hull, in a sorrowful note, declared that the tiny republic has now become the "irrevocable" puppet of Hitler Germany.

"Further relations between the government of the United States and the government of Finland are now impossible," Hull declared, in commenting on the new military collaboration between Finland and Germany—the cause of the break.

In handing passports to the last remaining Finnish diplomats in Washington, Hull made it clear that the action was taken more against the new German influence in Finland than against Finland itself.

It was believed that the further (Continued on Page Two)

Enemy Radio Admits Gains Made By Allies
(International News Service)

LONDON, June 30.—An admission was made today by the German-operated Paris radio that British offensive forces had gained several bridgeheads across the Odon river, southwest of Caen, but the enemy claimed that fierce German counter-attacks were holding the assault.

The Paris transmitter said a violent tank battle was taking across a 15-mile front west of Caen.

Large Fleet Off Coast
In connection with its earlier report that British and Canadian forces had effected a new landing east of the Orne river estuary and occupied the coastal town of Caen, radio Paris said that a large Allied fleet was cruising off the coast east of the Orne estuary.

German guns, it was claimed, so far have prevented the fleet from coming into shore, presumably to land reinforcements in that sector.

The Berlin radio said that an Allied landing fleet was still lying off the mouth of the Orne and Seine bight after British thrusts of local importance collapsed east of the Orne. The landing fleet was said to be protected by one battleship, various cruisers and destroyers.

American forces were said to have made two thrusts north of St. Lo with strong artillery and battle-plane support. After several hours of bitter fighting it was claimed, they were repulsed to their initial positions.

Final Drive On Saipan Nearing

By PERCY FINCH
Representing the Combined Allied Press
(Distributed by U.S.S.)

ABOARD JOINT EXPEDITION-ARY FORCE FLAGSHIP, Saipan, June 30—(INS)—(Via Navy radio)—Overcoming fierce enemy resistance in some of the most rugged terrain on Saipan, American forces have advanced beyond Mount Tapochau and are approaching the point from which the final drive for complete investment of the island will develop.

While making relatively small territorial gains, our troops fought a dogged battle for several days in the center of the island in an effort to straighten their line which the right flank has penetrated deep into enemy territory north of Magicienne Bay.

At one point east of the mountain the Japanese found their tanks no match in mobile encounters for our bazookas and anti-tank units and attempted to make better use of them by digging the tanks in and using the guns for a stationary position. Needless to say, the immobilized Japanese tanks are being eliminated by artillery fire.

Roads severed by enemy demolitions. The terrain was heavily mined and blocked.

Another fifth army column made up of French troops, was approaching Siena from the southwest over rough ground. The French forces occupied villages only 10 miles from Siena, while farther east others of their companies reached the outskirts of Buonconvento, six miles above Montalcino.

The Germans fell back before the British west of Lake Trasimeno as the allied troops occupied Castiglione Del Lago, one-time Nazi sea-plane base, and four other villages to the north.

On the eastern shore of the lake, British patrols thrust into the vicinity of Magione while other elements progressed north of Perugia.

After several days of slow and bitter fighting, the allied advance along the entire front is beginning to pick up speed again.

Prisoners were taken and several had letters indicating that the news of German reverses in Italy had reached their relatives at home, causing disturbed reactions in the Reich.

step of a declaration of war against Finland would not be taken now. Such action would have no practical effect since there is no front on which American forces could oppose Finnish forces.

Furthermore, a declaration of war can be made only by action of congress, and the congress is not now in session.

Note Is Presented
Today's action came in the form of a note from Secretary Hull which was handed to the Finnish diplomatic representative in Washington, Alexander Thesleff, who was summoned to the state department this morning.

He was handed passports for himself and for the members of his staff and their families.

At the same time, the American charge d'affaires in Helsinki, Edmund A. Gullion likewise was instructed to ask for his passports and to leave Finland.

The Finnish government has thus formally admitted to the world that it has now entered a hard and fast military partnership with Nazi Germany irrevocable, throughout the war, for the purpose of fighting the Allies of the United States in Alliance with the enemies of the United States.

NEW MANPOWER PLAN IN EFFECT ON SATURDAY

that steel production has declined 200,000 tons a month because of man-power shortages and may fall short of meeting allotments already made for the coming three months.

The steel slump threatens curtailment of less essential non-production. WPB reported that the industry has an employment deficit of 50,000 workers.

McNutt expressed belief that the channeling of employment through designated agencies will make it possible to bring about the transfer of many workers from less-essential to essential jobs and from surplus to labor shortage areas.

In all communities ceilings for major war production employers are established on the basis of the minimum number of workers required to insure required production. In some areas the number of workers allowable at a plant is the number on the payroll June 1; in others, June 30, or dates earlier than June.

McNutt said the ceilings should maintain employment at present levels or even lower, it where practicable by restricting replacement. Every action taken, he said, has the endorsement of local management-labor groups.

impenetrable screen of 17-pound shell fire from the British anti-tank weapons and the Germans retired after losing 12 panthers.

Before the Nazis had time to recover, British infantry attacked and occupied high ground near Bretteville, the dispatch added.

American troops meanwhile forced the surrender of forts in the Cherbourg breakwater and continued mopping up operations against the Nazis still holding out in the Cap de La Hague area at the northwestern tip of the peninsula.

(The German-operated Paris radio earlier reported that British and Canadian forces had carried out new landings east of the Orne river estuary to outflank Caen and had occupied the coastal town of Cabourg 10 and one-half miles northeast of Caen.)

No Confirmation
(There was no Allied confirmation of the report which said violent fighting was in progress in the Caen area. Radio Paris said also that a large Allied fleet was cruising off the coast east of the Orne Estuary, presumably planning to land reinforcements.)

Headquarters said that in advances received from the front there was no confirmation that the Germans had launched any large-scale counter-attack in an effort to crush the Allied assault.

One of the several separated German counter-attacks by which the enemy sought to stem the Allied drive on Caen took place between Granville and Bretteville. It was dispersed by Allied artillery.

British troops were rapidly clearing the Germans from the north bank of the Orne river while additional reinforcements continued to pour across the waterway to the south bank.

Repulse Counter Attacks
Three German counter-attacks were launched in the sector on the north bank of the Orne, but these were repulsed.

Mopping up operations were undertaken by the British in the Colleville-Gavrus-Mondrainville area where some Nazi strongpoints had been by-passed.

All Germans were cleared out of the town of Molen.

By noon yesterday, a spokesman revealed, British troops in the Molen area had reached the banks of the Orne and occupied Hill 112. Advanced British units drove to within a mile of the Carpiquet airfield.

The town of Marcelet was firmly in the hands of the attacking Allied forces.

Between Evrecy and Equain where the Germans have committed their reserves the fighting raged to and fro.

Successful Raid
On the eastern sector the British carried out a successful raid on the town of Breville. The British battleship Rodier supported the attack with salvos from 16-inch guns.

In the sector east of St. Lo there was only slight activity but the Allies were able to strengthen their front.

Headquarters said that German batteries at Cap De La Hague on the northwestern tip of Cherbourg peninsula still were firing on American troops advancing over heavily-mined terrain.

The formerly heavy German resistance in the Baumont Hague area was reported diminishing.

While it is evident that the German maps have been counter-attacking strongly on the Caen front, headquarters spokesmen pointed out, it is not considered that these attacks as yet have assumed proportions of a major counter-offensive.

Air support of the ground operations was marked by attacks yesterday afternoon and evening on rail and road communications behind the German lines.

Fighter-bombers and armed reconnaissance planes operating in the Cherbourg and Argentan areas destroyed more than 100 Nazi railway cars.

Other fighter-bombers strafed rolling stock near Paris and also the railway line at Vitry, 100 miles east of Paris, which was severed.

Medium and light bombers attacked viaducts between St. Hilaire and Vitry and bridges in the Rennes area.

Coastal batteries at Cap De La Hague were attacked by medium bombers.

disposes of two rate inquiries; released to the utility funds which were impounded March 31, 1942.

The regulatory agency began its first inquiry April 29, 1937, and the second investigation was instituted July, 1941, after the Utility filed a tariff supplement providing for an increase in rates.

The 1937 inquiry centered around the natural gas rates of three utilities serving southwestern Pennsylvania. In addition to the manufacturers company, the other utilities were the Peoples Natural Gas company and the Equitable Gas company.

F. W. Burdette, manager of the M. L. and H. company in New Castle said today that as yet he did not know on what basis refunds would be made in New Castle, but that he expects information from headquarters in Pittsburgh by tomorrow.

It is estimated that inadequate weatherproofing is responsible for a loss of a third of a billion dollars annually in fuel oil and coal used by domestic consumers.

brisk, which already was some 40 miles behind the swiftly-moving front line.

New advances of up to 22 miles were scored in the titanic offensive which in its first seven days killed or captured more than 111,000 German troops. At least 6,000 of these enemy casualties were slain officers and men.

As compiled by the Moscow information bureau, 52,900 Germans were killed or captured in the Vitebsk region, where five Nazi divisions had been pocketed and forced to capitulate or die; 34,000 more were eliminated near Brobrusk, where a similar debacle befell the enemy, and 35,000 others knocked out in the Baltic regions.

The Moscow radio, heard in London, declared that "Germany in five years of war lost 8,000,000 men."

Brobrusk Taken
Fall of Brobrusk was first announced by Premier Marshal Joseph Stalin in a special order of the day, his second yesterday. A supplement to the order said the city was taken in violent street fighting which followed "an impetuous attack from three sides."

Stalin's first order of the day proclaimed the triumph of the Russian troops fighting the Finns in Karelia. They captured Petrozavodsk, capital of the "Karelo-Finnish Republic", and the railway station of Kondopoga, thus clearing the enemy from the entire length of the Murmansk-Leningrad railway.

At the outset of the offensive the enemy was known to control about 125 miles of this vital railroad.

1,350 Localities Taken
Petrozavodsk, but one of the 1,350 localities to be captured by the Red troops yesterday, was taken as the result of a deep outflanking maneuver coupled with an amphibious assault by Russian forces which landed on the western shores of Lake Onega.

Volunteer Motorists Aid Families Struck By Recent Tornado

PITTSBURGH, June 30—(INS)—Everything was cleared today for several score volunteer motorists to drive their cars to Baltimore and return to the tornado-stricken McKeesport area with trailers to house 71 families left homeless in the "twister's" path.

The OPA had made arrangements to issue necessary gasoline coupons to enable the volunteers to make their money trip. The national housing agency, which owns the trailers, assured they would be available.

They, somebody discovered the trailers had neither tires nor wheels on them. They are now in a permanent-type camp near the Martin bomber plant and can only be moved commercially by a trailer firm possessing wheels and tires for that purpose.

A contract with such a firm was let and the trailers are now expected to arrive at McKeesport Saturday.

Murder Trial Ends In Amazing Manner

DETROIT, June 30—(INS)—Wayne County Sheriff Andrew C. Baird and his deputies Thursday faced a $50,000 damage suit as one of the jurors in the amazing end to the trial of Richard Vincent, 23-year-old gas station operator, charged with the murder of Joyce Raulston, 14.

Vincent was freed Wednesday when Robert Turner, 20, admitted the crime.

Atty. David Kull, representing Vincent, said the damage suit would ask compensation for Vincent for "assault, embarrassment and humiliation" suffered during a "fluid degree" by sheriff's officers. Vincent had previously repudiated a confession to the murder, stating that he signed it because he had been beaten and abused.

Coffee Must Stay At 5 Cents Per Cup

NEW YORK, June 30—(INS)—The office of price administration took steps today to insure the nation a "good 5-cent cup of coffee."

Woolley added that the nickel price must include cream and sugar if there was no extra charge for those items before October 4, 1942.

Columbus Gives Bricker Welcome

More Than 20,000 Crowd Area Around State House To Cheer Vice President Candidate

COLUMBUS, O., June 30.—(INS)—Columbus residents today will long remember the spectacular welcome home party given to Gov. John W. Bricker when he returned last night to the state capital as the new vice presidential candidate of the Republican party.

More than 20,000 cheering admirers of the silver-haired governor jammed Columbus streets surrounding the state house yard to catch a glimpse of Bricker and to hear his fighting address, pledging himself and his party to a "battle for righteousness" in the November election.

"There has never been a time when Ohio has meant more to me," said Bricker. "But never did I need your help, your sustained support, your prayers as much as at this hour."

Bricker denounced the "great deal of talk" about the coming campaign hindering the war effort, declaring that "nothing could give the people more confidence than the knowledge that this fair government will be subject to their control, will be close to their hand, home and heart with a Republican victory this fall."

Americans Aid Rescue Workers In British Town

LONDON, June 30.—(INS)—American soldiers assisted rescue workers today in digging victims out of the debris of buildings shattered by Nazi robot bombs hurled against towns in the south of England.

Aided fighter planes and anti-aircraft batteries took a heavy toll of the pilotless craft as they zoomed across the coast by daylight following a night of great activity by the Nazi weapons.

Many casualties were believed suffered when one bomb exploded in a building and damaged other structures on adjoining streets.

Roadways were littered with broken glass and crowds gathered to help at the victims, wrapped in blood-soaked blankets and placed on stretchers by American soldiers and ARP rescue crews.

U. S. airline planes are now flown about 1 1/2 times as many miles daily as prior to June 1, 1943, average load carried per mile has increased 40 per cent.

First Three Weeks Of Scout Camp Filled

Eighty Boys Prepare To Move In For First Meal On Sunday Evening, July 2

With the quota for the first three weeks completely filled, the Lawrence county scout camp is about ready for the opening on Sunday afternoon.

Boys will begin arriving about noon, and between then and six o'clock the cabins will be taken over by 80 young scouts ready for a week of vigorous camp life.

First meal of the camp will be served at 6 o'clock Sunday evening, and the last meal of the first period will be Saturday evening, July 8.

Members of the executive board of the Boy Scout council have decided on July 20 as the date for a council meeting at the camp. Dr. G. S. Bennett, president of the board, is sending letters to all the service clubs of the city, inviting them to use the facilities of the camp for picnics and meetings during the camping season. So far, the Kiwanis club is the only one which has made definite plans.

Business Activity Falls Off Slightly

PITTSBURGH, June 30.—(INS)—The Bureau of Business Research, University of Pittsburgh, announced today that with several items sagging slightly, the seasonally adjusted index of business activity in the Pittsburgh district for the week ended June 24 fell fractionally to 171.8 per cent of the 1935-39 average.

There was some gain in the indexes of iron and steel production, electric power and trade. One additional blast furnace was blown in late in the week, and the input rate gained slightly.

Urges War Workers Disregard Holiday

CLEVELAND, June 30.—(INS)—Management and labor in all war plants today were called on by John C. Virden, War Production Board director for the Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky and Western Pennsylvania region, to observe full working schedules on Tuesday, July 4. "The best way to celebrate Independence Day this year is to devote all our energy to backing up our fighting men," Virden said. "The invasion of France and actions being fought in other theatres make it more than ever imperative that we get war production up to schedule and keep it there. Independence Day this year must be a day of unbroken production on all important war programs."

Good Business Seen After World War End

By ROGER W. BABSON
Copyright—1944—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.

BABSON PARK, Mass., June 30—While I have built my business on the long-pull outlook, I ordinarily confine my newspaper predictions to periods of not more than a year in advance. However, in view of the very broad changes which are taking place in U. S. business and political economy, I now feel it advisable to look much further ahead.

General Business Outlook

Re-negotiation in most instances is not the wolf that most war producers thought it would be. Re-conversion to peacetime operations is, likewise, well in hand. While this may temporarily disrupt labor and interfere with profits, the change-over will be gradual and is already under way. It should not adversely affect business or the stock market. Hence, for the first few years after the formal ending of World War II, good business in most lines should be in order.

Industrial activity and production during the postwar period should run about 50 per cent above pre-war figures but will, of course, show a decrease from the peak of war production. This drop, however, is already being absorbed in many lines without fuss for the peak in war production was reached almost a year ago. National income, represented by wages, rents, interest, dividends, etc., will probably average around $112,000,000,000 per year. This will support a large volume of business. Living costs may rise 25 per cent but if so those who now purchase well selected securities may perhaps get enough capital gains to offset increased living costs.

New Building
With a high level of national income, plus accumulated savings, I cannot see anything except a very large volume of retail sales. Such sales have expanded greatly during the war, but I believe in the post-war years that they may exceed in dollars their wartime peak. Plans for the renewal of automobile production are being carefully worked out. A year or two after the war, production may approach 6,000,000 cars a year for two or three years. In addition, all sorts of household appliances, home furnishings, automobile accessories and other hard goods, along with an abundance of soft goods, will be available. These all will be in great demand.

I fully expect in the decade after the war, to see close to 5,000,000 new homes built. This will naturally be a great thing for both skilled and unskilled labor and should do much to keep up activity in the cement industries, which last will also benefit from our new road-building program. Homes are currently in great demand and prices, particularly in suburban communities, are expanding rapidly. It looks very much as though we would experience a real building boom. This is likewise true of productive real estate in general. I cannot now say that the entire country will participate in a land boom, but Florida, the southwest and California now seem headed in that direction.

Our Best Bet
After the immediate and inevitable readjustments which the end of the war will bring, businessmen should not be too much concerned with worrying over the following four years. Our real problem and task will be to determine how our coming prosperity can be extended after 1950. In the early 1950's we will begin to see signs of distress. It will be much harder then for business to provide reasonably full employment within the limits of our free enterprise system. Furthermore, the postwar inflation which may now be occurring may take place at that time.

We shall not always be able to depend upon Washington to maintain our property or to provide a solution to our economic problems. Beyond the postwar decade, the future depends upon the character and education of our young people and upon the intelligent and far-sighted guidance of our parents and grandparents. Yes, I am optimistic for the next five years but during that period we should prepare for another era of declining real estate, bond, stock and commodity prices, accompanied by general unemployment after 1950.

Canvassers Turn In Over 6000 For Military Ballots

Incomplete Count Shows Large Number From County In Service

Over six thousand registration cards for military ballots for service men and women of Lawrence county have been turned in by the military ballot canvassers, according to A. Lewis Conn, supervisor of the canvass. The exact number is 6007 and this will be added to in the next few days.

The number reported already surpasses the number anticipated. It was assumed there were no more than 5500 or 5700 men and women in service over 21 years of age, and that a percentage of these would be missed. Apparently the OGD workers have done a thorough job. For some reason not apparent to the average person, 10 people in the county refused to give the information asked for in the canvass. This means 10 soldiers or sailors will be denied a ballot in the election in November. The names of the people refusing to co-operate will be turned in to the state.

Corporations Top War Bond Quotas

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—(INS)—Corporations are believed to have topped Pennsylvania's $640,000,000 quota for large investors in the fifth war loan campaign on the basis of sales through Wednesday, G. Ruhlman Reimann, Jr., state war finance committee chairman, announced today.

Wednesday's sales of $98,300,000 raised the corporate total to $384,700,000 or 91.35 per cent of the goal. Yesterday's sales have not yet been put in but are believed sufficient to put the drive over the top, he said.

Meanwhile, sales to individuals continued to increase despite the lag in series E or "people's bonds". Individuals bought $25,516,225 Wednesday—the highest day's sale to date—for a new total of $202,193,549 or 45.75 per cent of the $442,000,000 quota.

Wool Growers Pool Clips At Mercer

MERCER, June 30.—The annual three-day pooling of the clips of the Mercer County Wool Growers association was completed yesterday under supervision of the Federal Commodity Credit corporation.

There were 420 individuals participating in the pool, which is an increase over that of last year, but the total amount of the pool was 55,000 pounds, while that of last year was 62,000. The decrease in the amount of the pool is credited to light clips and a reduction in the size of flocks due to a number of the sheepmen reducing their flocks to go into the dairy business. Some of Mercer county's leading sheepmen have sold their entire flocks.

Motorists Are Not Rushing For Stamps
Post Office Finds Only Small Percentage Of Motorists Have Purchased Stamps

With today the last day of grace for motorists, it has been found that only a small percentage of motorists had purchased Federal use stamps at the close of business yesterday.

These $5 stamps will be on sale at the regular stamp windows at the post office all during the month of July, but after that date, they will have to be purchased through the local revenue office, which is making ready to handle this business along with a volume of other Federal income tax business.

Motorists who think they can skip a few months and then buy a stamp at reduced prices, are doomed to disappointment. Folks who come in late and expect to take advantage of the reduced rate, will have to show the deputy collector in black and white that they are entitled to any rebate.

Australians In New Advances

Drive Through New Guinea Jungles Toward Wewak MacArthur Announces

GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S HQ IN NEW GUINEA, June 30.—(INS)—Australian 101st Airborne Division made steady advances today in the drive through thick jungles along the northern New Guinea coast toward Wewak, less than 70 miles distant.

Although between 20,000 and 40,000 Japanese troops were estimated to be trapped in the Wewak area, no mass evacuation attempt has been reported. Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced Monday the Aussies have met no enemy opposition as they advanced beyond Hama Bay, once main Japanese base, which they seized during an 80-mile westward push.

Small units of the trapped enemy force, however, are trying to filter from their vulnerable coastal positions into the jungles.

As the Aussie ground advance continued, Lieut. Gen. George C. Kenney's airmen struck enemy bivouac areas in the Yakamul Wewak area with another 75 tons of bombs. At the off-here islands of Misaki and Misaki 16 and probably 20 Japanese were destroyed by bombs and naval gunfire.

Yap, enemy stronghold at the western end of the Caroline archipelago, was again harassed by U. S. Liberators. The 15th raid on that island in eight days saw large fires and explosions result after 23 tons of bombs fell.

All the Liberators returned safely after dropping four and damaging five other Japanese planes which were shot down.

Robaul was again hit with 90 tons of bombs.

V.F.W. Members At Wilkes-Barre

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., June 30.—(INS)—Approximately 800 khaki-clad soldiers of World War II were attending the 25th annual encampment today of the Pennsylvania Veterans of Foreign Wars at Wilkes-Barre.

The youthful soldiers took their places alongside the gray-haired veterans of World War I and heard Bishop Martin O'Connor, of Wilkes-Barre, call upon the 2,000 delegates and visitors to guard the welfare of returning servicemen. The convention will close Saturday with the election of officers.

Picnic Fires Should Cook Food, Not Grass

Scout Techniques Can Be Followed By Any Picnicker To Assure Safety From Fire Spread

Holiday week-ends always mean picnics, whether in times when people can drive a hundred miles away or, as now, when they cook their picnic meals in their own back yards.

Wherever they eat, most people could benefit from a little of the fire building advice being given to the Girl Scouts who are getting ready for day camp. In hot weather, especially, a back yard is as good a place for a fire to get out of control as anywhere else.

Scouts are warned to have the means of putting the fire out before even lighting it. Sand, water or rocks—one or the other can be found without too much trouble. Next, build the fire in a cleared place on a dirt or rock base and have it enclosed by rocks, bricks or green logs.

And keep the fires small, scouts say. The Indians knew that bonfires were inconvenient for cooking food. Wood should be gathered before the fire is built, so that you don't have to leave the fire to hunt for it. Another trick is bundling paper into little balls before throwing it onto the fire—it doesn't blow away so easily.

Wind is something else a good scout or picnicker takes note of; he always builds his temporary fireplace so that the opening is toward the direction from which the wind is coming.

Brandy Springs Park To Get Tennis Court

MERCER, Pa., June 30.—A tennis court and ball diamond will be added to the Brandy Springs community park this summer and possibly a dam, provided the bulldozer which has been used for the excavation is repaired in time.

The park committee, at its last meeting, voted to extend drives into upper woods. The grass has been cut and debris cleared from the picnic tables which are daily attracting local residents.

Ice Demand Soars; Exceeds Last Year

Refrigerator Breakdowns And Hot Weather Put Strain On Local Ice Companies

More than one old ice box has been getting stocked up with ice again in the last two years, especially when the days are unusually warm. Along with everything else that produces something that's needed, the ice plants of New Castle are going full tilt just now.

Breakdowns and difficulty in getting parts for mechanical refrigerators, the increased use of fresh foods, and the excessive heat are all given as reasons for the demand, but whatever the reason, one local company estimates that the demand in general is 20 per cent higher than it was two years ago, and during the hot weather, even that high average is doubling.

Ahead Of Last Year

Another ice company which normally sells from 6,000 to 7,000 tons of ice a year, sold almost 2,000 tons more in 1943, and so far this year, has outstripped its sales for last year at this time by over 900 pounds.

In spite of the unusual demand, though, ice companies are not expecting any shortage such as hit many places in the country last summer. Occasionally people may get less than they want for the simple reason that the output of an ice plant is limited just as any other sort of production is.

Not From Country

The ice in a cool glass of iced tea isn't chopped out of some country pond and then stored away in straw. It comes from large buildings where compressors, working sometimes under 210 pounds pressure, compress ammonia, which is circulated around the cases in which the ice is frozen in 300 pound cakes. After being marked in 25 and 50 pound sizes, the ice is stored away in a mist-filled room which is constantly several degrees below freezing. Now, even on the lightest days, there is seldom more than 100 cakes left by 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Widen Bridgehead Over Odon River

Forts In Cherbourg Breakwater Surrender, General Eisenhower Announces

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS Advanced Command Post, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 30.—(INS)—Following is the text of a communiqué No. 49 issued today by General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

"The Allied bridgehead over the river Odon has been extended on both flanks. Elsewhere the situation remains general unchanged. Fighting continued north of Evrecy, where the enemy brought up fresh troops.

The forts in the Cherbourg breakwater have surrendered, and mopping-up continues in the Cap De La Hague area.

"Rail and road transport, bridges, railway tracks and crossings behind the battle line were attacked by our aircraft yesterday afternoon and evening.

"Fighter-bombers on armed reconnaissance in the Dreux, Chartres and Argentan areas destroyed more than 100 railway cars. Other fighter-bombers strafed junctions and rolling-stock near Paris, at Evreux and at Bolbec, 20 miles east of Le Havre. The rail line at Vitry, 100 miles east of Paris, was severed.

Medium and light bombers attacked the viaduct between St. Hilaire and Vitre and bridge in the Rennes area.

Coastal batteries on the Cap De La Hague were attacked by medium bombers."

Buckius Denies Red Tape Charge

HARRISBURG, June 30.—(INS)—Cong. Samuel Weiss charged that red tape in the highway department prevented the use of state equipment in removing debris from the tornado-stricken Dravosburg. McKeesport section was flatly denied today by Chief Engineer C. H. Buckius.

He asserted the Democratic congressman was "doing a lot of talking" without a thorough knowledge of the situation.

"Weiss is trying to get himself a lot of publicity," Buckius declared. "A disaster committee has been set up to handle these things and we're working through the committee. Both it and the state police have been in close touch with the situation."

Weiss claimed District Engineer P. E. Schmitt refused to send state equipment into the devastated McKeesport-Dravosburg area without authorization. The congressman said he unsuccessfully appealed to Highway Secretary John U. Shover.

"If every one jumped in willy-nilly you can imagine the confusion that would result," Buckius declared.

He reiterated that the disaster committee appointed by Gov. Edward Martin was in full control of the situation.

First Group Of State Guardsmen End Training

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa., June 30.—(INS)—Twelve hundred volunteer infantrymen in the state guard, representing the First Regiment, Philadelphia, and the Fourth Regiment, Allentown, were preparing to end their encampment tomorrow at the huge Indiantown Gap military reservation after a week of intensive training designed to fit them for any emergency.

They will be replaced tomorrow for one week by the Tenth Regiment, Pittsburgh; the Sixteenth Regiment, Oil City, and the First Cavalry Squadron, of Hershey.

The volunteer soldiers, who arrived a week ago and then sweltered under a brass sun while they received instructions in light weapons and infantry tactics, were inspected yesterday by officers from Third Service Command Headquarters at Baltimore, Md., including Maj. Gen. Philip Hayes, commandant.

Brig. Gen. Milton G. Baker, state guard commander, expressed pride in the accomplishments of the two infantry regiments and said the soldiers "have shown today that the past year of training in their armories throughout the state plus their outdoor maneuvers have certainly paid dividends."

On July 8 the Second Regiment, Wilkes-Barre, and the First Engineer Battalion, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, will report for training.

POLICEMEN STUMPED BY PUPPY IN SEWER
McKESPORT, Pa., (INS)—A husky police lieutenant and a patrolman, struggling to extricate a whining puppy from a sewer drop so that residents in the neighborhood could get some sleep, finally gave up and called out the street department. When a truck and crew arrived at the spot, armed with crowbars, air drills and other tools, the puppy was gone. A passerby had rescued the dog and gone on his way.

Await New Trials In Damage Suits Result Of Wreck

PITTSBURGH, June 30.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Railroad company today awaited new trials of four damage suits arising from a passenger train wreck at Baden, Pa., the night of March 16, 1941, when several coaches went into the Ohio river, killing five persons and injuring more than a hundred.

The trials, before Judge John P. Egan last November, resulted in verdicts totaling $37,950. The largest was $35,000 awarded by the jury to Wasi Shabatara, Pittsburgh.

The railroad contended the wreck was entirely due to sabotage and that a rail had been tampered with.

The plaintiffs produced witnesses who said they had seen loose ties and an occasional loose spike before the time of the wreck.

W.L.B. Orders Strikers Here To Return To Work

Board Says Men Must Return Before Arbitrator Will Be Sent Here

Striking tool and die shop employees of the Aluminum Company of America, off the job since last Monday morning were ordered to return to work today by the National War Labor Board.

In a telegram addressed to Elder McCormick, president of Local 219, United Automobile Workers, the strikers were told emphatically that they must return to work and that until they do return will there be an arbitrator of the War Labor Board sent out to adjudicate their differences.

At noon today Lester M. Shearer, representing the strikers said, "The men have not gone back to work and will not do so until a conciliator comes out on this case. There are three departments of government handling labor disputes and this order to return to work comes from the National War Labor Board. The National Labor Relations Board also has jurisdiction and it is up to them to send out a conciliator to adjudicate the dispute."

The men walked off the job Monday, June 26 when two of the group of 150 tool and die shop workers were dismissed for failure to pay their union dues. Authority for such dismissals comes from the "maintenance of union membership" clause in the contract between the company and the UAW-CIO, the bargaining agent for the plant.

Message Sent
The telegram to Mr. McCormick follows:

"The Secretary of Labor and the United States Conciliation Service have referred to the National War Labor Board a stipulation signed by the Aluminum Company of America of New Castle, Pennsylvania, and the United Automobile Workers of America, CIO Local 219, case Number 111-9055 HR for the settlement of the question, 'whether certain employees are members of Local UAW-CIO under the maintenance of membership clause in the parties contract.' National Labor Relations Board has been informed that some members of Local 219 UAW-CIO are parties in a strike. This strike is particularly unfortunate at this time when our armed forces are depending upon the products manufactured in this plant to lead the assault on the European and Eastern fronts and must be terminated immediately. The regional director of your international union on the 26th ordered you to return to work in keeping with your no-strike pledge. You have ignored this order. Now the National War Labor Board orders you to return to work at once and follow the normal proceedings set up by your government for the peaceful adjustment of labor disputes in war time. When full and continuous production has been resumed the National War Labor Board is prepared to immediately assign an arbitrator to settle the question in dispute. Please advise John J. Long.

(signed) PHILLIP L. GARMAN, Assistant Director Dispute Division, NWLB.

As the matter stands the 150 tool and die workers are on strike. They have been ordered to return to work by the regional director of the UAW-CIO and have refused. They are now ordered back to work by the United States government and have not complied as yet.

The decision to remain on strike is not unanimous among the men it is understood. Today at noon it was learned that side of the men are prepared to institute a back-to-work movement and have an arbitrator sent out to adjudicate the dispute.

The annual death rate for U.S. troops overseas is one in 2,000, as compared with the World War I rate of 15.6 per 1,000.

Inner Tubes Are Off Ration List

Make Available 3,900 Passenger Car Tires For July And August

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(INS)—Rubber Director Bradley Dewey today released inner-tubes from rationing, and made available 3,900,000 passenger tires for distribution to civilian motorists in July and August.

Dewey announced that inventories are sufficiently large to permit their release from rationing, effective tomorrow. They were brought under control in January, 1942.

At the same time, Charles F. Phillips, OPA rationing administrator, said that "it looks as though there will be no tires for A-card drivers until early in 1945."

AROUND CITY HALL

Henry Golder is in charge of the New Castle Duntley's relay of brick in that portion of Court street which was washed out when a water main of the New Castle Water company burst. The water company is bearing the cost of the replacement.

When a truck struck a "No left turn" sign on the public square it had to be removed and some motor-ists were turning left from north side of East Washington street through the middle of the public square. This is contrary to police regulation. The sign will be replaced as soon as possible.

According to reports received in city hall a three-year-old nephew of F. T. Sargent, co-ordinator, OGD, fell down the stairway of his home at Wheeling and was fatally injured. The boy was a son of Mr. Sargent's brother, F. T. Sargent is attending the V. F. W. convention at Wilkes-Barre.

There will be no kiddies day at Cascade park Monday, according to announcement by Park Manager C. C. Coulthard, who expects a big crowd Saturday, Sunday and the best crowd of the season on the Fourth of July. Special arrangements to handle the outpouring of amusement seekers are being made.

Entering the Promised Land

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for July 2 is Joshua 1-6, 24, the Golden Text being Joshua 1:9. "Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed; for Jehovah thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.")

It is thought that the events chronicled in this very long lesson occurred around 1400 to 1375 B. C. or thereabouts. The first events are located on the east side of the river Jordan; the rest on the west side. Joshua died at Shechem.

After the death of Moses the Lord appointed Joshua, son of Nun, to lead the people of Israel into the land He had promised them. He told Joshua of the great lands they were to take for their homeland and it may be mentioned that never, even in the time of Israel's greatest glory was all this land inhabited by them.

First, Joshua chose two men to go to Jericho and spy secretly. They went to the house of a woman named Rahab, but the two must have been seen entering her house because men came there at night to arrest them. Rahab, however, hid them on her roof under long stalks of drying flax, so that the men did not find them, and after they had left she let them down the wall with ropes, through a window, as her house was built on the city wall.

Jericho Afraid
She told them that all the city had heard how God caused the Red sea to part for their crossing and all Jericho was afraid. She asked them to spare the lives of herself and all her kin for this great favor.

They promised, and told her to bind a line of scarlet thread in the window and bring all her relatives to live with her. The two men hid in the mountains for three days until the pursuers gave up the search, then returned to Joshua.

Next day the children of Israel began their march across the Jordan with the ark of the covenant leading the way. The waters of the Jordan parted, as Joshua had said, and they passed over in safety.

Joshua chose a man from each tribe and told each to take a stone from the bed of the river where the priests' feet had stood and bring them to him. And Joshua set them up as a memorial of the Lord's goodness.

Now all the people inhabiting the lands that had been promised to the Israelites were afraid because of the reputation of the children of Israel and the city of Jericho was shut up tight, no one leaving and no one going in. The Lord told Joshua to send seven priests with trumpets ahead of the ark of the Lord, and armed men were to go before and behind, and they were to march around the city walls blowing trumpets. Seven days they marched around the city, blowing their horns, and on the seventh day the trumpets blew and the people all shouted and the walls came tumbling down.

All the inhabitants were put to the sword except Rahab and her people, and the city was burned, but the silver and gold, vessels of brass and iron, were put into the treasury of the house of the Lord.

Joshua Grows Old
A long time after these events, their enemies, Joshua had grown old and feeble and knew that his time was almost gone. He called for all Israel and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and told them that he would not be with them much longer. He reminded them of all the mercies the Lord had vouchsafed them, and warned them not to serve the false gods of the people among whom they dwelt, but to cleave to their own God.

"For the Lord hath driven out from before you great nations and strong; but as for you, no man hath been able to stand before you until this day."
"One man of you shall chase a thousand; for the Lord our God, He it is that fighteth for you, and He hath promised you."

"Take heed, therefore, unto yourselves, that ye love the Lord your God."
The people were told to choose whom they would serve, whether the gods of strangers or this their own God, "but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord," said Joshua.

And all the people answered and said, "God forbid that we should forsake the Lord, to serve other gods."

"And Israel served the Lord all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders that over-lived Joshua, and which had known all the works of the Lord, that He had done for Israel."

Prisoner Killed Trying To Escape

BALTIMORE, June 30.—(INS)—One of two prisoners attempting an armed escape from the Maryland penitentiary in Baltimore was shot to death today in a roaring gunfight with prison guards and police. The dead prisoner was identified as Salvatore Appicito, 20 years old, serving a 50-year sentence on a charge of armed robbery. The other prisoner, who was unhurt, was Paul Black, 19 years old, who was serving a 30-year sentence on a robbery charge.

Prison authorities were uncertain whether the dead convict had been killed or had ended his life by a shot from his own gun during the gun battle.

Work Has Changed, Alderman Serving Fortieth Year Finds

Alderman Green Probably Holds National Record For Minor Court Continuous Service

Not quite sure just how often he has been re-elected, O. R. Perry Green, alderman of the third ward, is now in his third office and his fortieth year as justice of the peace. Beginning when automobiles were few, and criminal cases many, Alderman Green has watched a gradual shift of his business over to affidavits, fishing licenses, and drivers' permits. The affidavits are better, though, Mr. Green says. Criminal cases are usually "sad stuff." Not that they can't be interesting, though, he adds. There was the time when someone killed the fish warden and buried his body in the bank of a river, and there were the "black hand" blackmail cases out in the Hillside district on which Mr. Green worked with the late Charles H. Young, then district attorney and the late Creighton Logan, county detective. "They even had a couple of detectives from Pittsburgh working on that case for six months," he recalls. "About forty persons were convicted and sent to the penitentiary."

Formerly an ardent hunter and fisherman himself, Mr. Green has his office decorated with a stuffed Marlin sail fish from Florida, the heads of two deer, dog pictures, including two of a dog's poker game, bird pictures, and a calendar with a horse picture on it.

When asked if he would consider running for the office again, Mr. Green laughs. "Usually I'm not too much like the president, but I'll hold out on this. Maybe I'll be drafted before that," he adds.

MENINGITIS DECLINES

HARRISBURG, June 30.—(INS)—Spinal meningitis was on the decline in Pennsylvania as the result of warmer weather and sulfa drug treatments. Deputy Health Secretary J. Moore Campbell said only 15 cases were reported last week boosting the total since January 1 to 750. The mortality rate was low because of sulfa treatments, he added.

First Crusade Of Prayer For Peace Service On July 2

County Christian Endeavor To Sponsor Union Evening Church Services

Rev. James N. Rainey of the Central Christian church, who is also counselor to the Lawrence County Christian Endeavor Union, today stated that representatives of every active group will take part in the union mass prayer service that will be held Sunday evening, July 2, at 7:15 o'clock on the east lawn of the First Christian church.

For the first of this series of Sunday evening Crusade of Prayer for Peace services that are planned for July under the auspices of the county Christian Endeavor union, arrangements are being made to seat 400 people.

Families of those in service are particularly challenged to attend. The souvenir program will be in a form convenient for mailing to those in the armed forces.

Rev. Thomas J. Jones of the First Congregational church will speak on the theme "Holding Fast on Faith." Kenneth Gaston will preside.

The evening prayer is one written by Dr. Samuel E. Irvine, pastor of the First U. P. church.

Musie will be in charge of David J. Reese and Mrs. Richard K. Allen. The Christ Ambassadors trio, composed of Elma Nunley, Esther Krempeles and Elizabeth Cloca, will sing. Plaingrove C. E. will usher.

HABITUAL CRIMINAL PETITION
In a petition to the court, District Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson has asked that James Ross be brought into court for the purpose of identifying him as the James Ross who has four felony convictions back of him, and that if it can be proven he is one and the same, that he be dealt with under the "habitual criminal law" law. Under this law Ross could be given life imprisonment. Ross has been convicted four times in the Lawrence County court for felonies, all of them having to do with robberies and burglary. His current conviction is that in the June term of court on three counts. This is the first time the law concerning habitual criminals has been invoked here. Under the law any person convicted four times for felony within a period of five years, not counting the time spent in prison may be dealt with in the manner described.

ARGUE CASES
Before Judges John G. Lamoree and George H. Rowley of Mercer County two cases were argued on Thursday. The first was that of the city of New Castle seeking to enjoin the county and Shenango township from taxing Cascade Park and the municipal golf course. A decree nisi was handed down recently in which the court held that the golf course could be taxed and part of Cascade Park.

The city's position is that the county cannot tax municipal property used for municipal purposes. For the County Solicitor William McElwee challenged the constitutionality of the law which would permit a city to take over as much of a township as it wished and not have to pay taxes.

The arguments will be studied and a decision handed down shortly it is expected.

The second case was that in which Jack Dworzen, an attorney of Cleveland, O., seeks to collect a note of $23,000 with interest from the estate of the late Ella K. Thayer.

Brownell Seen As Selection For G.O.P. Chairman

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

CHICAGO, June 30.—Herbert Brownell, Jr., a young midwesterner who gathered his political experience under Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, emerged today as the final odds-on favorite for the post of Republican national chairman.

The new GOP national committee meets today to make its official selection of a successor to Harrison E. Spangler of Iowa, after Dewey, its 1944 presidential nominee, had spent a full day in conferences with state and national leaders on campaign problems.

The Dewey entourage plans to leave for Albany tonight. At the same time, it was reported that an agreement had been reached to locate the national campaign headquarters in Chicago instead of New York. This was interpreted as a move to offset the eastern aspect of the Dewey ticket and to simplify transportation during the campaign.

The name of Brownell, 40-year-old chairman of the law committee of the New York Republican state committee, and one of Dewey's three top political advisers, came to the fore in the chairmanship consideration two days ago.

In the calm following Dewey's first-ballot nomination Wednesday, the probability of Brownell's selection was strengthened. Dewey, for one thing, promised in his acceptance speech to surround himself with persons "young enough to do the job."

Other potential candidates for the post appeared largely to have been ruled out for one reason or another. J. Russell Sprague, New York national committeeman and a top-drawer Dewey adviser, doesn't want the chairmanship. Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas, the party's defeated 1936 presidential nominee, left town last night after conferring with Dewey—a sign that he, too, was not in the race.

Wampum Methodists Have Musical Tea

Sponsored by the ladies of the Wampum Methodist church, the musical tea given on Thursday evening at the church was well attended and very well accepted by the community.

On the program were two piano numbers of Guy Davis and one by Miss Lois Vance; vocal solos by Mary Miller, Mrs. Charles Morrow, Elmer Kanagy, Mrs. George Herbert, and Mrs. George Strehler; an instrumental trio by Ida M. Bingham, Maxine Thewes, and Dorothy Anderson; a vocal trio by Mrs. Harry Huffman, Jr., Ann Davis, and Doris Tebay; and readings by Phyllis Fry and Mrs. K. T. Yahn.

Ushers for the tea were June McBride and Dorothy Johnston. On the committee in charge were Mrs. Alfred Miles, Mrs. Ray McBride, Mrs. Plummer Anderson and Mrs. James Tebay.

The Romans used tables with one, three or four legs, and rectangular, round or hexagonal tops. They were made in many styles and of many materials, such as wood, ivory, marble, gold, silver and bronze.

Sincerely yours, Richman Brothers

To an extent that is almost unique, Richman Brothers carry out a policy of sincerity in business which is sometimes mistaken as a lack of enterprise.

For example, it is not lack of aggressiveness that keeps us from juggling prices or putting on so-called high-pressure promotions.

Nor is it lack of energy or alertness that keeps us from making exaggerated claims or fantastic price comparisons.

No, we recognize a responsibility to be just as sincere in our relations with customers and employees as a man of honor is in his private life—and we strive to live up to that responsibility. That is our business creed, and our constantly growing business proves that people appreciate it.

LONDON, June 30.—(INS)—Allied fighter planes and anti-aircraft batteries destroyed a number of German robot bombs which were sent against southern England after day-break today.

The pilotless missiles hit houses during the night and caused casualties. Some persons were rescued from the ruins. A number were trapped when a children's home was hit.

Additional damage and casualties were reported as a result of unchecked night activity by the pilotless craft sent across the channel by the Germans.

German radio reports heard by the FCC, however, said that allied planes had approached Carinthia, Styria and the lower Danube area during the night. The London radio, CBS said, broadcast German reports that allied bombers were flying toward Austria.

Extensive raids by an estimated 1,000 United States Fortress and Liberator bombers, escorted by another 1,000 fighters, against vital aircraft and oil production centers in the Reich yesterday cost the Americans 15 heavy bombers and two fighters, headquarters of the U. S. eighth air force said.

American air force fighters, on the other hand, destroyed 33 Nazi interceptors in the air and got 16 additional German planes on the ground. The heavy bombers downed three Nazi craft.

Last Of Selectees In June Call Leave

Group From Three Boards, Summoned For Army Service, Depart Thursday Evening

Selectees from the three local boards centered in New Castle who were called up for army service, departed for camp Thursday evening, leaving via the Pennsylvania railroad.

The group was small compared to past calls, one bus being able to accommodate the men leaving from the three boards.

One man listed in the call was unable to be present because of illness and will leave later.

There was a large crowd of friends and relatives present to see the men off, and they were presented with the customary kits by the women of the Lawrence County Service Men's Aid committee of the USO.

Among those leaving was Carl R. Bowen, son of Mrs. Mary Bowen of Crawford avenue, a widow who has given all four sons to the service of her country, and also has a son-in-law in service. One son, Sgt. Fred Bowen, was recently wounded in action while serving as a tail gunner on a bomber, while another, Pfc. Philip Bowen, is a prisoner of war, having been captured by the Nazis in Italy.

Price Control Bill Signed By Roosevelt

President Signs Measure Disregarding Appeal Of Organized Labor

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(INS)—President Roosevelt today signed the price control extension bill, disregarding the appeal of organized labor that he veto the controversial measure which Congress enacted last week.

The President's action assured continuation of the office of price administration for at least another year until June 30, 1945.

The measure rushed through Congress a few days before it recessed for five weeks, has been termed "inflationary" and unenforceable by its opponents but praised by its adherents as an improvement over the existing law.

Highlights of the new act include:

1. An amendment "freezing" roll back subsidies and prohibiting payment of existing subsidies after June 30, 1945.

2. The so-called Bankhead "cotton escalator" clause providing that OPA price ceilings of major cotton textile items shall reflect parity prices to raw cotton producers.

3. A provision permitting defendants in treble damage suits to offset the defense that the price ceiling violation was not willful.

4. Additional authority to the OPA administrator by permitting him to buy products to gain evidence of violations.

5. A provision permitting higher rents in hardship cases.

6. A provision outlawing the so-called "kafkaesque courts" of OPA judges which a person charged by OPA with violating a price ceiling would be denied the privilege of selling ration goods. The defendant may seek an injunction.

Warn Public, War Is Far From Won Despite Invasion

Head Of Army, Navy And Air Corps Deplore Optimistic State Of Public

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The nation has before it today the sternest and most solemn warning thus far in the war against the American public taking for granted that the world-wide conflict is virtually won.

The warning came from the three men in the nation who are charged with the conduct of the fight against the Axis—the United States joint chiefs of staff, Gen. George C. Marshall, Army chief of staff; Admiral Ernest J. King, chief of naval operations; and Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of the Army Air Forces.

Tough Fight Ahead

It was contained in an official report to President Roosevelt as commander-in-chief, made following their first-hand inspection of the Allied beachhead in Normandy, and released by the chief executive.

"On our return from the front in Normandy we perceive a state of mind in this country against which we believe the public should be warned," the war chiefs told the President.

Warning that the war is far from won, the military commanders struck out at homefront complacency and against civilian war workers leaving their war jobs to get peacetime work.

"There is still a tough fight ahead of us," they reported to the President.

"Anyone can see that desertions on the fighting fronts would protract the war and reduce our prospects of victory.

Stick To Jobs

"The war is not yet won; it will be won the sooner if everybody in war work sticks to his job till complete victory has been attained."

They praised the courage, toughness and technical skill of the American soldier and said the progress of the war on all fronts "should be a source of the highest gratification to the American people."

Victory, however, they said, is predicated upon continued full support of the fighting forces by the homefront.

"The battles now in progress entail heavy losses in material which American industry must replace and any slackening in the needed production will only delay ultimate victory," the joint chiefs declared.

"The recent favorable course of the fighting seems to have persuaded some people that the war is as good as won, and that accordingly they can throw up their war jobs and go back to civilian life."

"No doubt most of the men at the front would also like easier and better paid peacetime jobs; but they are sticking to the jobs they have now."

"There is still a tough fight ahead of us."

Brother Of Mrs. Howard Geary Dies On Eve Of Return To States After Duty Abroad

Mrs. Howard Geary, of 814 Highland avenue, received the sad news of the death of her brother, Ensign C. R. Johns, U. S. Navy, aged 36 years, who had been attached to the staff of the U. S. Naval hospital at Londonderry, North Ireland, for the past two and a half years.

His death resulted from an illness of pneumonia which was followed by a heart condition. Ensign Johns was making preparations to return to his country, where he was to be stationed at the U. S. Naval Training Station at Sampson, N. Y., when he was stricken.

He had resided with his sister, Mrs. Geary, for a number of years prior to going to New York City, where he was an assistant to the commissioner of health before enlisting in the U. S. Navy in 1927. He sailed for overseas on February 6, 1942.

Besides his sister, Mrs. Margaret Geary, of this city, he leaves the following brothers and sisters: O. E. Smith, of Mena, Ark.; Noel Smith, of Tusculosa, Ala.; Claude R. Johns, Memphis, Tenn.; Marvin L. Johns, in the U. S. Air Force, in the Burma-China theater; and Mrs. Dorothy Stauffer, Hot Springs, Ark. His mother died during the past year.

Military funeral services were conducted on June 17 at Londonderry and he was buried in the new military cemetery at Belfast, Ireland.

Costliest engineering project the world from the economic standpoint probably was the bridge built for a railroad in Australia. Only one train has passed over it in 55 years, although it cost $100,000. Authorities decided on another route, avoiding the bridge after this initial run.

Traffic Toll Is Staggering Total

Report 9,400 Lives Lost In First Five Months Of 1944 By Traffic Mishaps

CHICAGO, June 30.—(INS)—America's wartime traffic toll took a toll of 9,400 lives during the first five months of 1944, the National Safety Council reported today. This total is 11 per cent, or nearly 1,000 lives higher than the toll for the same period last year.

The increased fatality rate was made even more serious, the council pointed out, by the fact that the nation is heading into its peak traffic fatality season, which usually begins with the Fourth of July holiday period and extends through October.

An Egyptian wooden chair in the Metropolitan Museum, New York, came from Thebes, and dates from about 1,500 B.C.

Major Britton Is Assigned To Deshon Annex

Major H. M. Britton of the Medical Administration Corps has been assigned to the Deshon General hospital annex in Cunningham park and today inspected the unit along with Major Victor O. Skyberg and Lieutenant R. T. Killerman. All of the officers expressed their satisfaction with the camp and were particularly pleased with its location and possibilities.

"It is a beautiful spot," said Major Britton, and the men in charge here have done a real job in getting settled. For the present it is undetermined whether or not Major Britton will have his headquarters here and visit the hospital in Butler periodically or will headquarter at the general hospital and come to New Castle several days a week.

Red Cross Director
Miss Virginia Henry of Harrisburg, Pa., has been assigned to the annex in charge of recreation and is on the job today. For the present she is busy building her schedule of operations.

Gifts of furniture continue to come in to the annex. Mrs. Grace Phillips added to her long list of contributions to the camp when she sent out a piano Thursday. An organ has been contributed and another pool table, making three pool tables. Six pool room chairs have been sent out by the Masonic fraternity and Emanuel Shermen of the Hanes Furniture company augmented his gift of a radio to the annex when he had a loud speaking system installed to carry the radio programs throughout the huge hall.

A sponsors' committee is being set up by a group of New Castle citizens which will act as a sort of collective "big brother" to the annex. Plans are already under way for a newspaper drive on July 15, the proceeds of which will be put into an operating fund for the sponsors' group.

State Guard To Leave For Camp This Evening

Company F and the regimental band of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania Infantry will entrain tonight at 7:30 for Indiantown Gap where they will undergo a week's tour of duty commencing Saturday, July 1. Company F is commanded by First Lieutenant Robert F. Galbreath, and the band is in charge of Warrant Officer Joe F. Replogle.

Before entraining the company will be fed at a restaurant near the armory. The company located in Butler will come to New Castle this afternoon and board the train with the local units. A stop will be made at New Brighton to pick up the company located there.

Major Frank W. Hill left for Indiantown Gap on Thursday to make preparations for the encampment.

Claim Allied Ships In Cherbourg Harbor

LONDON, June 30.—(INS)—The Nazi agency DNE reported today that allied landing craft entered the Cherbourg harbor during the night. This enemy propaganda report was the first intimation that Cherbourg has been sufficiently restored to a port to accommodate any kind of allied shipping.

The Nazi broadcast alleged that heavy German batteries still operating at Cherbourg opened fire and prevented large naval units standing out beyond the roadstead from entering the port.

Allied Armies Are 650 Miles Short Of Berlin Goal

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(INS)—The three Allied armies in Europe engaged in friendly rivalry for the honor of first to reach Berlin, were tied today as battle lines on all three fronts formed about 650 miles from the Nazi capital.

American and British armies on the Normandy beachhead have reached a point 650 miles from Berlin. The Russians, driving along toward Minsk, were fighting on a line 640 from Berlin, while Allied units on the Italian front had a slight edge at a distance of 635 miles from the heart of Germany.

E Bond Sales Still Lagging

New Castle Must Speed Up Campaign To Reach Quota Assigned

SOME DISTRICTS SHOWING SPURT

Some little increase was added to the total of war bond sales in the county in the noon report today, but the increase was slight. In New Castle the total of "E" bonds sold stands at $434,160 against a quota of $1,484,700. The total sales to individuals in New Castle is $999,097.50. The quota is $2,447,360. The grand total of "E" bond sales for the county is $996,970.50 against a quota of $2,020,000. The grand total of sales to individuals is $1,682,109.50 against a quota of $3,330,000.

New Wilmington has gone over its quota of "E" bond sales, the second district in the county to do so. Ellwood City being the first. Volant is showing strength and Wampum district has done an especially good job this time. W. H. McCullough, the chairman has directed the bond campaign in his district from a hospital bed but he has done a job of it. Wampum district needs about $18,000 to go over. In this district Enon Valley and Little Beaver townships have turned in an excellent job. In the county Slippery Rock and Shenango townships are woefully back in their quota.

Wounded Veterans Buy
There is a group of citizens presently residing in the county who are buying bonds almost to a man. They are the wounded veterans at the Deshon General hospital annex in Cunningham park. About fifty-five men are stationed there, and all but a few have been wounded. They not only fought the war but they are helping to pay for it with their money. One laid out there, badly wounded in the fighting in Italy is a burly private, he gets $50 per month. Every month there is a deduction from his check for war bonds.

A local service man, Sheriff Clyde D. Badger received a flattering notice in the Camp Peary, Va., newspaper. The sheriff has just purchased $5000 worth of war bonds. Sheriff Badger voluntarily left the sheriff's office to enlist in the Navy. Some garrison finish work has to be done in New Castle and in some districts of the county if the quota is to be met. It can be done. Ellwood City and New Wilmington have proved it. If solicitors have not called at some homes the householders can get bonds at the banks, the theatres, or in the retail stores.

Word of his being hospitalized was obtained from Raymond Stoughten, a brother, who was in New Castle today.

Dewey Against Any Third Term

Republican Candidate For President Gives Views On Many Issues

FACES HUGE ARRAY OF CORRESPONDENTS

By LEO O'BRIEN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)
CHICAGO, June 30.—Governor Thomas E. Dewey, Republican candidate for president of the United States, declared Thursday that he never will aspire to a third term in that office and that he would welcome the aid and advice of Wendell L. Willkie, 1940 presidential candidate, in his campaign.

Cool and untroubled in the face of a barrage of questions at what was described as "the largest press conference in history," Governor Dewey said that:

Dewey Statements
1. He will remain in Chicago for several days, probably until Saturday, working with the national committee and state chairmen and vice chairmen on plans for the coming campaign.

2. No decisions will be made by him without consultation with Governor John W. Bricker, Republican candidate for vice president, with whom he had a breakfast conference Thursday morning.

3. His mind is still open on the choice of a national chairman and selection will be made after talks with all the major party leaders who are remaining in Chicago.

4. He has given no thought to cabinet appointments, in the event of his election.

Dewey promised "better administration and better appointments" in the Security Exchange commission.

One newsman asked the governor

if the G.O.P. foreign policy plank "rules out an international police force?"

What Do You Mean?
"What do you mean by an international police force?" Dewey countered. "I'd like to have you define one."

"If you mean that American boys would be directed by some disembodied spirit, I'd believe that is ruled out."

Governor Dewey was asked directly if he would refuse a draft for a third term, if he was elected to two terms.

"That is a hypothetical question," he replied, "but I will answer it. I am on record in a dozen speeches, delivered during the 1940 campaign, as believing that the third term is destructive of everything good in the American form of government. I still believe that and my views will never change."

Includes Willkie
Asked if he would invite Willkie to aid in his campaign, Governor Dewey said he hoped to have the assistance of all leaders of the Republican party and that he would receive their advice.

"Does that include Mr. Willkie?" he was asked.

"Certainly," was the prompt reply. The governor was asked, in view of a statement in his acceptance speech that his cabinet would consist of the ablest men and women in the United States, whether he planned to include some Democrats in his cabinet.

"I haven't a single individual in mind for a cabinet appointment," he said, "and I shall not have for a considerable time."

To Meet Committee
Governor Dewey said he hoped to meet all of the national committee members and state chairmen during the next two days.

"We have to discuss the matter of organizing the national committee," he said, "involving all of its officers. I have no views on the subject now. I want the views of all members of the national committee, both as to organization and plans for the campaign before making up my own mind."

"I also want to consult further with Governor Bricker, and I want to make it very clear that Governor Bricker and I will consult on all party and campaign matters. The decisions will be by joint agreement."

Governor Dewey was pressed for comment on whether his acceptance speech "accent on youth" meant that youth will dominate his administration.

"No decisions have been made on anyone," he replied. "Until they are I can't tell you how old they will be."

Question—On Platform
When questions about the platform began to pour in, the governor said he had read the document only once, while flying to Chicago yesterday, but his answer indicated he had virtually memorized its salient points.

He said the plank on fair play in employment wholly meets his views; that it is too soon to outline definitely what steps he would take, after this war, to prevent Germany from waging war again; and that he would never favor sacrifice of our sovereign power to make war, because the United States always used that power in a purely defensive way.

Governor Dewey declared that the convention which nominated him was "totally unbossed," and that the verbiage of the platform, representing the conflicting views of a large number of persons, necessarily involving some compromises and what might be deemed by some as inconsistencies.

Work With Other Countries
He said he believes the essence of the foreign trade plank is that the United States will participate and work with all other countries to promote international trade in the interests of peace.

Governor Dewey said he will not resign as governor of New York state unless he is elected to the presidency. His term as governor has more than two years to go.

Dewey told reporters that he had no general campaign plans. His present intention, he said, is to return to Albany and "continue to organize the campaign."

The governor was asked if he contemplated preparations to meet national depressions.

"I would assume the national government will be interested in the means of flattening out so-called business cycles," Dewey answered.

Numerous question relating to retention of Pacific island bases and domestic matters will be answered, the candidate said, in his campaign speeches.

PIN-WORMS GO!

New Treatment Gets Real Results

Anyone who has ever had Pin-Worms knows how tormenting and embarrassing this affliction can be, and how hard it is to eliminate the ugly crawling creatures once they get a foothold inside the body. Millions of people—rich and poor, children and grown-ups—have suffered in silence with the misery of Pin-Worms, and doctors have tried for years to find a way to deal with this pest. Old-fashioned worm "cures" usually don't work on Pin-Worms. Today, thanks to an important scientific discovery (a remarkable drug known as gentian violet), a new and highly effective treatment has been found by doctors. This drug is the vital element in P-W, the new Pin-Worm tablets developed by the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son, America's leading specialists in worm medicines. P-W makes it easy to deal with Pin-Worms. The small, convenient P-W tablets act in a special way to destroy the creatures. Don't take chances with Pin-Worms! Just ask your druggist for P-W, and be sure to follow the directions. P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

Bridgehead In Caen Sector Is Being Extended

British Armies Make Progress Despite Stubborn German Resistance

NAZIS BRINGING UP FRESH TROOPS

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 30.—British armies southwest of Caen, in Normandy, extended their bridgehead across the Odon river on both flanks today despite stubborn German opposition.

The Nazis threw in fresh troop reinforcements into the fray in the area north of Evreux. Elsewhere on the battlefield around Caen, road and rail hub which is threatened with encirclement, the situation remained unchanged, headquarters said.

A battlefront dispatch reported that British infantrymen and anti-tank gunners smashed a German counter-attack along the western flank of the Caen salient, standing firm in a raging thunderstorm while the rain came down "in sheets."

Hit Shell Fire Screen

The Nazi attack was mounted last night by infantry units backed by panthers and six-barreled mortars, the enemy tanks ran into an anti-tank gun position.

PA NEWC Observes

Pa Newc figured the political game was really getting warmed up when he passed a group of young ladies around a jewelry counter. He was discussing the merits and demerits of the G. O. P. convention, and ignoring the earnings altogether.

People are just much smarter than others. More than one person has been seen downtown with an umbrella to keep a little bit of shade right with them.

Dogs still interest people when other things don't. Not even the attractive counters of a jewelry store were attracting as much attention one hot morning this week as a dog lying in the doorway catching flies.

While in the vicinity of the Public Square on Thursday afternoon, Pa Newc discovered that a lot of folks were making left turns into Jefferson street from Washington street while headed west. It was also discovered that the sign forbidding left turns was missing from the traffic sign.

New Castle and Lawrence county got some relief last night from the torrid weather conditions of the past few days, but none of the rain that fell in some nearby districts. Temperature was down near normal this morning.

Save this newspaper and every other newspaper for the newspaper salvage collection drive here on July 15. Only newspapers will be gathered, and they will be for use at the Shenango Pottery in this city, while the funds realized will go to the benefit of the Deshon hospital annex in this city.

Indications are that few farmers will be taking any time off for the July 4 holiday. Looks to Pa Newc as though the day will be about the height of the wheat harvesting season.

Although New Castle failed to get any rain late Thursday afternoon, the citizens could hear the thunder from a storm which passed around south of the city.

Report Laval As Peace Emissary

LONDON, June 30.—(INS)—An entirely unconfirmed press report from Switzerland said today that the Germans were seeking to prevail upon Arch-Collaborationist Pierre Laval, chief of the Vichy government of France, to make peace overtures through the United States.

The report was contained in a Bern dispatch to the London Daily Telegraph.

Moscow Report Says Nazi Troops Are Fleeing "In Confusion" Before Reds

NAZI LOSSES IN WEEK 110,000

By NATALIA RENE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, June 30.—Saber-wielding Cossack cavalrymen and hard-driving Russian tank crews slashed today at the heels of German hordes retreating "in confusion" toward the White Russian capital of Minsk, after the Red army liquidated more than 111,000 enemy troops in its week-long offensive.

One spearhead of the Soviet army was within little more than 30 miles of Minsk, gateway to Poland and the Reich itself, while other converging Russian columns threatened hundreds of thousands of German troops with encirclement.

Smash "Fatherland Line" In their relentless surge across the plains and through the forests of White Russia yesterday, the Russian legions completed annihilation of the enemy's "Fatherland Line" by capturing the stronghold of Brodno.

Washington Roundup

(International News Service)

From Washington today comes a stern and solemn warning that the war is far from won. The warning is made by Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, Admiral Ernest J. King, chief of naval operations and Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of the Army Air Forces. In a report to President Roosevelt after first hand inspection of the Allied beachhead in Normandy, the commanders strike out at home-front complacency and against civilian war workers leaving their jobs for peacetime work. "There is still a tough fight ahead of us," they declared.

Meanwhile, the barometer of Argentine-American relations is dropping sharply to indicate a new gathering storm. Cause of the new strain is a sword-rattling, jingoistic speech by Col. Juan Peron, Argentine minister of war and power behind the government. The state department made public text of the speech in which Peron dedicates Argentine to an unofficial pursuit of a warlike life and a war economy his remarks are in startling similarity to the earlier proclamations of Mussolini.

A survey of official army and navy announcements discloses that more than 12,000 Japanese planes and nearly 1,400 enemy ships of all types have been destroyed since Pearl Harbor.

On the food front, OPA announces asparagus, peas and tomatoes will go back on the ration list Sunday and says there will be 15 to 20 per cent less canned vegetables for civilians in the coming year. Asparagus will cost 10 blue points, peas and tomatoes, five. Five new blue stamps, W-8, X-8, Y-8, Z-8 and A-5 become good Sunday.

OPA also orders lower prices on sweet peppers, hothouse cucumbers and all melons except watermelons in new ceilings effective July 5.

CAEN DRIVE AIMS AT PARIS

Continuing the drive to outflank Caen in a lunge toward Paris, British and Canadian forces have been cutting highway and rail links about that bitterly contested point while airmen pound at key rail and supply centers along the Seine river in the sections indicated on map by the large arrow. Small map, inset at right, indicates in black the area gained since the original invasion landings on June 6.

Long Gas Rate Case Is Ended

Refund And Lower Rates Are Agreed On By M. L. & H. Company

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, June 30.—A seven-year-old rate case against the Manufacturing Light and Heat Company, of Pittsburgh, was terminated today by the Public Utility Commission following an offer by the utility to refund $225,000 to its Pennsylvania customers and to reduce rates approximately $200,000 annually.

The new tariff will become effective August 15, the commission said, and refunds completed by September 1.

The utility operates in Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Bedford, Clarion, Fayette, Greene, Lawrence, Mercer, Somerset, Venango and Washington counties and furnishes service in parts of Ohio and West Virginia.

Commissioner Thomas C. Buchanan filed a dissenting opinion.

Canal Hearing At Youngstown Opens July 13

PITTSBURGH, June 30.—(INS)—An Interstate Commerce Commission hearing will open on July 13 at Youngstown, O., upon which may hinge the future of the projected Beaver-Mahoning dead end canal between Youngstown and Rochester, Pa., on the Ohio river.

The commission will take testimony on a plea of Youngstown industrial interests for a reduction in rail coal rates from western Pennsylvania fields to the Ohio steel areas.

Opponents of the canal proposal have long contended that a rail coal rate reduction by the ICC after the canal was built would leave it an idle, useless ditch with no economic justification.

Plan Paper Drive For Dual Benefit In New Castle

Newspaper Salvage Collection To Aid Shenango Pottery And Deshon Annex

COLLECTION IS SET FOR JULY 15

With a double barreled objective in view, both local, plans were made Thursday night in The Castleton for a newspaper salvage drive in New Castle on Saturday, July 15. The drive will be used in the Shenango Pottery and the net proceeds from the sale will go into a fund to be used in service to the Deshon General Hospital Annex located in Cunningham Park.

This will not be the usual waste paper drive. No magazines or card board boxes are wanted; this will be only for newspapers tied in bundles. They will be picked by volunteer workers, loaded onto trucks and hauled to the Shenango Pottery. The Pottery will pay ceiling price for the papers.

Scouts In Camp

Ordinarily the waste paper drives are conducted under the sponsorship of the Boy and Girl Scouts. The Scouts are in camp during July and are not available for paper salvage duty. The urgent need for newspapers at the pottery became known and a July campaign was decided upon. At the same time it seemed to be an opportunity to raise funds to aid the wounded veterans in camp at the Annex and the above mentioned plan was worked out.

Numa P. Vidal is the general chairman of the movement, with John P. Boyle acting as collection chairman. J. Fred Clarke, president of the Lawrence County chapter of the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association will act as fleet master and be in charge of securing and dispatching trucks.

Need the Paper

The need for newspapers at the pottery is vital. Between pieces of china were a piece of the paper is placed and hundreds of thousands of dozens pieces of ware pass through the pottery. Magazine paper will not do, it is too smooth; only newspapers will do.

Householders are urged to get their old newspapers gathered up and save them for July 15. Bundle them, tie them securely and have them on the curb in front of the home by noon on the collection day.

This is an opportunity to aid a local industry and at the same time help the recreation fund at the Deshon annex in Cunningham Park. Details of the collection will be announced from time to time. Right now the important thing is to start putting aside your newspaper for July 15.

Tank And Infantry Forces Advance Rapidly Along Broad Front

ROME, June 30.—American tank and infantry forces, advancing rapidly along a broad front, moved today to within a mile of Cecina which is less than 20 miles from the Italian port of Livorno (Leghorn).

Another U. S. spearhead of Lieut. Gen. Mark W. Clark's forces pushed ahead, further inland, to a point less than seven miles south of the historic city of Siena.

Gen. Sir Henry Maitland Wilson's headquarters announced that the American advanced elements were within 1,500 yards of the Cecina road junction.

Next Six Weeks To Give Indication Of Time Of Berlin Entry

(Editor's note: International News Service War Correspondent Pierre J. Huss, formerly manager of the INS Berlin bureau, reports that observers in London expect the next six weeks to determine when the Allies will enter the German capital. In the following timely dispatch, he reveals what he believes will be the attitude of United Nations troops as the Wehrmacht topples.)

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, June 30.—The coming six weeks will seal Hitler's fate and reveal whether the Allies will march into Berlin before the leaves turn brown or when the snow falls.

That is the consensus today of some of the best London observers, most of whom have switched from their pre-invasion estimate that the Wehrmacht would hold out until next year. Their reversed opinion is that the crack-up will be coming this summer, provided the Allies are able to develop the anticipated punches and are favored by reasonable breaks and decent weather.

See Wehrmacht Cracking

The same quarters, in keeping the finger on the German pulse, are convinced, however, that the Wehrmacht will crack up before Hitler falls.

Available facts show that the German high command did not believe Cherbourg would be conquered or that the Russians would break through the Pantherland line.

These twin blows are known to have severely shaken confidence of the German high command. There has been a series of conferences, unattended by Hitler, at which the western front was accepted as the (Continued on Page Two)

American Troops Meet Stiff Resistance From Japs, Small Gain On Western End

AIR OPPOSITION IS SLACKENING UP

By RICHARD V. HALLER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PEARL HARBOR, June 30.—American assault troops on Saipan Island were meeting severe resistance today after gaining control of the entire southern half of the Marianas stronghold by wiping out a Jap pocket of resistance on Nafutan point.

The last remnants of resistance on Nafutan point at the southeastern tip of Saipan were cleaned out Tuesday according to a Pacific fleet headquarters announcement.

Occupation of Nafutan on the south and Kagman peninsula on the north gives United States forces complete control of Magicienne bay, an anchorage on the eastern shore of Saipan which may prove of value in maintaining supply lines.

Small Gains Made

On the western side of the island, headquarters announced that small gains were made in and around the City of Garapan but the advance northward is being made "against severe enemy resistance."

While the ground troops continued their hard-fought campaign which is now going into its third week, carrier planes carried out a devastating raid against Pagan Island, 108 miles north Saipan.

This raid was staged Tuesday and struck carrier-based aircraft units scored direct hits on enemy barracks and a large reservoir which is the island's only source of fresh water.

No air opposition was encountered at Pagan and only one Jap plane, apparently unserviceable, was seen on the island.

To the People of this Community
War photographs in this newspaper at their best cannot convey the horror or the tremendous sacrifices being made by men and women on the battle front from this community.

Rather, our news pictures should serve to remind you that the fighting fronts are a tiny part compared to the burden being shouldered by our fighting men and women. Think of yourself facing the cross fire of the enemy. Think of yourself sitting parched on a raft adrift on the ocean... speeding into death traps over Nazi Europe or lying on bloody soil awaiting aid. These pictures are not wired for sound. You cannot hear the screams of agony or the gunfire but the realities of men fighting and dying are still present for you to see and think about.

Your government is not asking you to trade places with the heroes in these pictures but it is asking you to enroll your bankroll and buy more War Bonds than you ever bought before. Back the attack—Buy more than before.

U. S. Breaks Off All Relations With Finland

Further Relations With Finland Impossible As Germans Over-Run Country

SECRETARY HULL NOTIFIES FINLAND

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 30.—The United States formally severed diplomatic relations with Finland today as Secretary of State Hull, in a sorrowful note, declared that the tiny republic has now become the "irrevocable" puppet of Hitler Germany.

"Further relations between the government of the United States and the government of Finland are now impossible," Hull declared, in commenting on the new military collaboration between Finland and Germany—the cause of the break.

In handing passports to the last remaining Finnish diplomats in Washington, Hull made it clear that he and the American people regret the ironic turn of affairs which has suddenly changed Finland from friend to foe.

He spoke of "the esteem in which the people of Finland" and indicated that the action was taken more against the new German influence in Finland than against Finland itself.

It was believed that the further (Continued on Page Two)

Enemy Radio Admits Gains Made By Allies

(International News Service)
LONDON, June 30.—An admission was made today by the German-operated Paris radio that British offensive forces had gained several bridgeheads across the Odon river, southwest of Caen, but the enemy claimed that fierce German counter-attacks were holding the assault.

The Paris transmitter said a violent tank battle was raging across a 15-mile front southwest of Caen.

Large Fleet Off Coast

In connection with its earlier report that British and Canadian forces had effected a new landing east of the Orne river estuary and occupied the coastal town of Caen, radio Paris said that a large Allied fleet was cruising off the coast east of the Orne estuary.

German guns, it was claimed, so far have prevented a new landing from land reinforcements in that sector.

The Berlin radio said that an Allied landing fleet was still lying off the mouth of the Orne and Seine bight after British thrusts of local importance collapsed east of the Orne. The landing fleet was said to be protected by one battleship, various cruisers and destroyers.

American forces were said to have made two thrusts north of St. Lo with strong artillery and battle-plane support. After several hours of bitter fighting, it was claimed, they were repulsed to their initial positions.

Now that we know the candidates names, now that we know who they are, get ready my friend for the hardy perennial, the usual election cigar. They're strong and they burn like a handful of rope, and the odor assaults eyes and nose, but the candidate always come back with some more, for the smoke can vote as he knows. So hail to the strong smelling election cigar, a confection of dark colored hay, it may get the votes but it smells like a rope, it's cooler and ninety today.

Three Executed In Sing Sing Prison

Those executed were Frank DiMarzio, 23; Peter DeLuio, 23, and Alex Bellomo, 26, all of New York City.

Final Drive On Saipan Nearing

By PERCY FINCH

ABOARD JOINT EXPEDITION-ARY FORCE FLAGSHIP, Saipan,
June 29.—(INS)—(Via Navy radio)
—Overcoming fierce enemy resistance in some of the most rugged terrain on Saipan, American forces have advanced beyond Mount Tap-otau and are approaching the point from which the final drive for complete investment of the island will develop.
While making relatively small territorial gains, our troops fought a dogged battle for several days in the center of the island in an effort to straighten their line which on the right flank has penetrated deep into enemy territory north of Mag-icienne Bay.
At one point east of the mountain
the Japs found their tanks no match in mobile encounters for our bazookas and anti-tank units and attempted to make better use of them by digging the tanks in and using the guns for a stationary position.
Needless to say, the immobilized Jap tanks are being eliminated by artillery fire.

roads severed by enemy demoli-tions. The terrain was heavily mined and blocked.
Another fifth army column, made up of French troops, was approaching Siena from the southwest on rough ground. The French forces occupied villages only 10 miles from Siena, while farther east others of their compatriots reached the outskirts of Buonconvento, six miles above Montalcino.
The Germans fell back before the British west of Lake Trasimeno as the allied troops occupied Castigione Del Lago, one-time Nazi seaplane base, and four other villages to the north.
On the eastern shore of the lake,
British patrols thrust into the vicinity of Magione while other elements progressed north of Perugia.
After several days of slow and bitter fighting, the allied advance along the entire front is beginning to pick up speed again.
Prisoners were taken and several had letters indicating that the news of German reverses in Italy had reached their relatives at home, causing disturbed reactions in the Reich.

step of a declaration of war against Finland would not be taken now.
Such action would have no practical effect since there is no front on which American forces could oppose Finnish forces.
Furthermore, a declaration of war can be made only by action of congress, and the congress is not now in session.
Note Is Presented
Today's action came in the form of a note from Secretary Hull which was handed to the Finnish diplomatic representative in Washington, Alexander Thesleff, who was summoned to the state department this morning.
He was handed passports for himself and for the members of his staff and their families.
At the same time, the American charge d'affaires in Helsinki, Edmund A. Gullion likewise was instructed to ask for his passports and to leave Finland.
Hull's note declared that as a result of the Finnish agreement with Germany.
"The Finnish government has thus formally admitted to the world that it has now entered a hard and fast military partnership with Nazi Germany irrevocable, throughout the war, for the purpose of fighting the Allies of the United States and the enemies of the United States."

NEW MANPOWER PLAN IN EFFECT ON SATURDAY

that steel production has declined 200,000 tons a month because of man-power shortages and may fall short of meeting allotments already made for the coming three months.
The steel slump threatens curtailment of less essential non-production. WPB reported that the industry has an employment deficit of 50,000 workers.
McNutt expressed belief that the channeling of employment through designated agencies will make it possible to bring about the transfer of many workers from less-essential to essential jobs and from surplus to labor shortage areas.
In all communities ceilings for major war production employers are established on the basis of the minimum number of workers required to insure required production. In some areas the number of workers allowable at a plant is the number on the payroll June 1; in others, June 30, or dates earlier than June.
McNutt said the ceilings should maintain employment at present levels or even lower it where practicable by restricting replacements.
Every action taken, he said, has the endorsement of local management-labor groups.

impenetrable screen of 17-pound shell fire from the British anti-tank weapons and the Germans retired after losing 12 panthers.
Before the Nazis had time to recover, British infantry attacked and occupied high ground near Brette-ville, the dispatch added.
American troops meanwhile forced the surrender of forts in the Cherbourg breakwater and continued mopping up operations against the Nazis still holding out in the Cap de La Hague area at the northwestern tip of the peninsula.
(The German-operated Paris radio earlier reported that British and Canadian forces had carried out new landings east of the Orne river estuary to outflank Caen and had occupied the coastal town of Cabourg 10 and one-half miles northeast of Caen.)
No Confirmation
(There was no Allied confirmation of the report which said violent fighting was in progress in the Cabourg area. Radio Paris said also that a large Allied fleet was cruising off the coast east of the Orne Estuary, presumably planning to land reinforcements.)
Headquarters said that in advances received from the front there was no confirmation that the Germans had launched any large-scale counter-attack in an effort to crush the Allied assault.
One of the several separated German counter-attacks by which the enemy sought to stem the Allied drive on Caen took place between Grainville and Bretteville. It was dispersed by Allied artillery.
British troops were rapidly clearing the Germans from the north bank of the Odon river while additional reinforcements continued to pour across the waterway to the south bank.
Repulse Counter Attacks
Three German counter-attacks were launched in the sector on the north bank of the Odon, but these, too, were repulsed.
Mopping up operations were undertaken by the British in the Colleville-Gavrus-Mondraiville area where some Nazi strongpoints had been by-passed.
All Germans were cleared out of the town of Mouten.
By noon yesterday, a spokesman revealed, British troops in the Mouten area had reached the banks of the Odon and occupied Hill 112.
Advanced British units drove to within a mile of the Carpiquet airfield.
The town of Marcelet was firmly in the hands of the attacking
Allied forces.
Between Evrecy and Esquay
where the Germans have committed their reserves the fighting raged to and fro.
Successful Raid
On the eastern sector the British carried out a successful raid on the town of Breville. The British battleship Rodney supported the attack with salvos from 16-inch guns.
In the sector east of St. Lo there was only slight activity but the Allies were able to strengthen their front.
Headquarters said that German batteries at Cap De La Hague on the northwest tip of Cherbourg peninsula still were firing on American troops advancing over heavily-mined terrain.
The formerly heavy German resistance in the Baumeville-Hague area was reported diminishing.
While it is evident that the Germans have been counter-attacking strongly on the Caen front, the headquarters spokesman pointed out, it is not considered that these attacks as yet have been assumed proportions of a major counter-offensive.
Air support of the ground operations was marked by attacks yesterday afternoon and evening on rail and road communications behind the German lines.
Fighter-bombers and armed commissaire planes operating in the Chartres and Argentan areas destroyed more than 100 Nazi railway cars.
Other fighter-bombers strafed rolling stock near Paris and also the railway line at Vitry, 100 miles east of Paris, which was severed.
Medium and light bombers attacked viaducts between St. Nizaire and Vitre and bridges in the Rennes area.
Coastal batteries at Cap De La
Hague were attacked by medium bombers.

bruisk, which already was some 40 miles behind the swiftly-moving front line.
New advances of up to 22 miles were scored in the titanic offensive which in its first seven days killed or captured more than 111,000 German troops. At least 6,000 of these enemy casualties were slain officers and men.
As compiled by the Moscow in-formation bureau, 52,000 Germans were killed or captured in the Vitebsk region, where five Nazi divisions had been pocketed and forced to capitulate or die; 34,000 more were eliminated near Brobrusk, where a similar debacle befell the enemy, and 25,000 others knocked out in the Baltic region.
(The Moscow radio, heard in London, declared that "Germany in five years of war lost 8,000,000 men.")
Brobrusk Taken
Fall of Brobrusk was first announced by Premier Marshal Joseph Stalin in a special order of the day, his second yesterday. A supplement-ary communiqué said the city was taken in violent street fighting which followed "an ineptuous at-tack from three sides."
Stalin's first order of the day pro-claimed the triumph of the Russian troops fighting the Finns in Kare-lia. They captured Petrozavodsk, capital of the "Karelo-Finnish Re-public," and the railway station of Kondopoga, "thus clearing the en-emy from the entire length of the Murmansk-Leningrad railway".
At the outset of the offensive the enemy was known to control about 125 miles of this vital railroad.
1,350 Localities Taken
Petrozavodsk, but one of the 1,350 localities to be captured by the Red troops yesterday, was taken as the result of a deep outflanking maneuver coupled with an amphi-bious assault by Russian forces which landed on the western shores of Lake Onega.
Polotsk, vital railroad junction northwest of fallen Vitebsk, was outflanked by a Soviet column which captured Vitrovo on the rail-way leading southwest to Molodech-no.
South from Veletrino sector, the Russians reached the Berezina river—scene of Napoleon's bitter defeat 132 years ago. They seized a 37-mile strip of the historic stream.
New York, June 30.—Red army forces, which yesterday reached the Berezina river along a 37-mile front, have forced a crossing of the his-toric stream, the London radio re-ported today.
"The Germans are in full retreat everywhere. Two more German generals have been captured in White Russia," added the broad-cast, heard by CBS. The number of Nazi deserters increases "hour by hour".
Black thyme was mentioned as a seasoning for delectable dishes by Theophrastus, Horace, Virgil and Pliny. It grows best in England, and is reputed to have disinfectant properties.

number one danger zone through which the Allies could smash quickly into Germany's vital war industry and provoke a homefront collapse. On the other hand, the eastern front is still 250 miles distant from the nearest German soil.
Qualified observers foresee a bloody struggle which will blaze hotly in occupied lands, between Hitler's elite SS Guard and the German soldiers, the moment the Wehrmacht quits, inside Germany, they believe, a half-million of Him-mler's fanatics will strike to hold on despite the bloodbath that is sure to run riot from one end of the Reich to the other.
No Allied Tears
On the Allied side, nobody is pre-pared to waste tears over the Ger-man bloodshed. Sole concern on ou-ter side is, firstly, to shatter the Wehrmacht into unconditional sur-render; secondly, to settle the hash of armed Nazi troops and kill or capture Hitler and his henchmen, and thirdly, to carry out occupa-tion of Germany swiftly.
That is the three-fold blueprint. There will be no quibbling, accord-ing to the 1918 style, as to the who, what, and where of occupying the Reich.
It is in the Allied cards this time to teach every Herrenvolk son a object lesson, and make them re-alize through a couple years of total military occupation that war is a foolhardy game and the dream of world conquest unattainable.
Consequently, from Koenigsberg across the flat east Prussian plains to Stettin, and down along the Oder river which has been a hotbed of Nazism, "Uncle Joe" Stalin's do-oughty warriors will see to it that "the Germans" behave.
No Leniency
Down in the south, including Ba-variya and Franconia, "the bloody Jerry" will be watched for dirty tricks by British eyes.
And in the northwest will stand the battle-wise Yanks, toughened by hard fighting against the mer-ciless Nazis. They will be in no mood to react their fathers' easy-going Rhineland occupation. On the con-trary, the "Huns" will have to watch their P's and Q's or else—.
But Berlin and Brandenburg province—seat of the Junkers—are slated for a three-way taken occu-pation force of Americans, British and Russians. Most of the Allied troops probably will have to pitch their tents in the Tiergarten or on the Wilhelmplatz, as reconnaissance photos indicate that the Reich cap-ital will be largely a pile of ruins.

LONG GAS RATE CASE IS ENDED

disposes of two rate inquiries, re-leased to the utility funds which were impounded March 31, 1942.
The regulatory agency began its first inquiry April 20, 1937, and the second investigation was instituted July, 1941, after the Utility filed a tariff supplement providing for an increase in rates.
The 1937 inquiry centered around the natural gas rates of three uti-lities serving southwestern Pennsylv-ania. In addition to the manufac-turers company, the other utilities were the Peoples Natural Gas com-pany and the Equitable Gas com-pany.
